A fashion photograph featuring a woman with blonde hair tied back, wearing a black long-sleeved, high-necked, asymmetrical dress. She is standing on two black wooden stools, with her hands on her hips and her body angled towards the right. The background is a heavily distressed, light-colored wall with peeling paint and exposed brickwork. A large, dark shadow of the woman is cast onto the wall behind her. The lighting is dramatic, coming from the side, creating strong highlights and shadows.
